

Shaykh Ahmad Arshad (DB)

Program Details:

Friday Evening May 15th 2015 @ 8:00 PM

Address: 2832 Kings Gift Drive
Ellicott City, MD 21042

Program for Brothers and Youth
(Dinner will be served)

Saturday May 16th 2015 @ 12:00 PM

Address: 2625 Taulton Lane
Knoxville, MD 21758

Program for Brothers, Sisters and Children
(Lunch will be served)

Saturday Evening May 16th @ 7:30 PM

Address: 4 Evan Way
Pikesville, MD 21208

Program for Brothers and Sisters
(Dinner will be served)

Sunday May 17th @ 12:00 PM

Delmarva Muslim Community Center

Address: 7843 Jersey Road
Salisbury MD 21801

Program for Brothers and Sisters
(Refreshments and snacks Will be served)

Shaykh Ahmad Arshad (Damat Barakaatuhum) for approximately the last two decades has been a student of Islamic scholarship and spirituality under traditional scholars and Mashaikh. For over sixteen years, He has remained in close company and under guidance of the highly respected Shaykh Zulfiqar Ahmad (Damat Barakaatuhum), accompanying him on his various travels. He was granted Ijaza (Khilafat) by the Honourable Shaykh in 2005.

Shaykh Ahmad has travelled extensively throughout North and South America, Europe, Middle East and South Asia delivering lectures and conducting programs to assist seekers on the path of sacred knowledge and purification.

Along with his wife (Alimah Humera Ahmad), The Shaykh also set up 'Zainab Center' in 2003, which is an online academy of classic Islamic scholarship and spirituality.

Shaykh Ahmad Arshad (Damat Barakaatuhum) did his bachelors in Computer Science and graduate work in Management & Systems from New York University. He works at NYU as part of a new initiative known as Global Learning Innovations for defining education in the 21st century.